

By registering for the Who Will Go Camp, you affirm that you agree to willingly abide by these rules, be a good sportsman, dress according to camp policy, and exhibit a good Christian disposition at all times. You also agree to follow the directives of the camp director and leadership at all times. You understand that failure to comply with camp rules may result in dismissal from camp, requiring your parent/guardian to make arrangements for your early departure.

Bro. Chris Hewett and the camp staff reserve the right to set and maintain the highest biblical standards in keeping with consistent Christian conduct. Please review this summary of our standards. Note that this list is intended to be general, and the directors have final authority to apply and interpret these standards.

DOCTRINE:

Who Will Go Missions Camp is proudly an Independent Baptist Camp and will be governed accordingly in faith and doctrine. We use only the King James Bible. Our music and manner of worship may be considered 'old-fashioned,' but we believe they are in keeping with the word and spirit of the Scriptures.

DISCIPLINE:

All camp activities are designed to be a fun experience for all participants while also allowing time to draw closer to the Lord and hear His voice without unnecessary distractions. Please observe the following general rules of conduct:

- NO cigarettes, snuff, or other tobacco products (youth and adults).
- NO drugs, firearms, fireworks, radios, alcoholic beverages, rock music, country music, CD players, tape players, record players, TVs, video games (or gaming devices), computers, or Palm devices.
- NO knives, guns, or other weapons.
- NO magazines or books (Exception: a personal devotional book such as Baptist Bread or a similar daily devotional is acceptable).
- Cell phones are permitted but must be surrendered to your counselor, who will control phone usage.
- There is no cell service at the camp, so be prepared to have no communication with those outside of camp.
- The camp phone is off-limits to campers. In an emergency, a counselor will contact the parents.
