

Packing List for Campers

The Who Will Go Camps are designed to provide physical, mental, and spiritual training to prepare God's people for missions. Below is a list of suggested items to help you be fully prepared for your time at camp.

Essentials:

- Bible
- Notebook
- Ballpoint Pen
- Sleeping bag and pillow
- Towels and washcloth
- Water bottle
- Flashlight
- Backpack
- Bug spray
- Sun protection (sunblock, hat, sunglasses)
- Any necessary medications (prescriptions, allergy meds, inhaler, etc.)
- Personal care items (toiletries, deodorant, toothbrush/toothpaste, etc.)
- Electrolytes

Clothing Tips:

These are general tips to help you choose appropriate clothing for camp. Please refer to the registration papers for the detailed dress code. Also expect to get wet, dirty, muddy, and sweaty,

For Daytime/Training Activities:

- Shoes – Bring two pairs if possible; they will get wet.
 - Should be closed-toe, have good tread, be comfortable, and be okay to get dirty.
- Socks – Bring extra pairs as backups.
- Jacket – Weather can be unpredictable; bring a light jacket just in case.
- Raincoat/Poncho – If it's raining, we're still training!
- Clothing – Wear clothes suitable for training. Do not bring your best clothes.
 - Guys – Quick-dry pants are best for mobility and moisture.
 - Girls – Loose, flowing or athletic-material skirts/culottes are best for mobility.
 - Leggings /shorts should be worn under skirts for modesty and to protect your legs.

For Evening Services:

- Dress casual attire is expected.
 - Men – Polos, button-up shirts, etc.
 - Women – Dresses or skirts.
- The camp has an outdoor/open-air tabernacle, so plan your clothing based on the weather forecast.
- Due to the nature of the camp, men are not required to wear suits and ties, and women are not expected to wear formal Sunday-best dresses for services.
