

Dear Camper,

We are thrilled that you've registered for this year's Who Will Go Camp in Lineville, Alabama! We are praying and expecting God to do great things and can't wait for an incredible week together. Our team is already asking God to move in a mighty way, and we encourage you to prepare your heart to receive all He has in store. Come ready with an open heart, a Christ-like attitude, and a focus on missions!

What to Expect:

- A full week of hands-on mission training—immersing you in the work as much as possible without taking you to the field.
- Days filled with activities, preaching, and teaching to equip and prepare you for world missions.
- Evening services with powerful Bible preaching, designed to challenge and encourage a heart surrendered to missions.

Be sure to print the camp registration packet and needs list to help you pack and prepare. If you have any questions, let us know!
